ETV is an English language program specially designed with young people aged (9)10-12 in mind. ETV is fashioned as a lively TV show with live audience.

The aim is to teach beginning and elementary English, combining education and entertainment.

Two teenagers, Sam and Zoe, host the show, and lead young learners through a series of amusing and meaningful sequences.

Two 12-year old Roving Reporters make reportages from Bristol.

Meet also the special guests in the series: The female Rap artist, the Circus performer and Pablo, the artist.

The goal of ETV is to motivate young learners to get off to a good start in English by engaging both the cognitive and the emotional areas of the brain.
