Mi querida familia is a series of ten short, continuous episodes intended for both a young and an older audience, for beginners and almost beginners, in studies of Spanish as a foreign language.

Get to know a modern family in downtown Madrid, the ever-growing capital of Spain!

Julia, soon a teenager, loves her family, her friends and the everyday life in her neighborhood. The only problem is that Andrés, her beloved older brother, falls in love and Julia feels jealous for the first time. But at least she has her big-hearted and good-humored grandmother, la abuela, and Julia slowly adapts to the new situation.

Andrés discovers love in a time when the world opens for this funny and talkative guy who is a great fan of soccer. His girlfriend Vanesa, from Uruguay, marches decidedly into Andrés' family to become another of its members. Vanesa has just arrived to Madrid and lives with her father, while her mother is still in Montevideo. Thanks to Internet Cafés she is able to keep a close communication with her mother.

Julia's father is of Argentinean origin and is the household chef, as well as the most tranquil of them all. He works at a publishing company, but if it were up to him he'd spend more time at home. Julia's mother is a psychologist who works with families in crisis. The most pacific and easy going of them all is the grandmother, la abuela, who with humor, tranquility and wisdom looks upon the world and on what's going on around her.

In Mi querida familia the viewers get a taste of friendship, romance and jealousy. We also get to know Madrid and its friendly inhabitants in the city's terraces and avenues and in its typical neighborhood restaurants. We also visit a football match, go shopping and much more.

The series ends with an entertaining and authentic party between young and older Latin people, where the old Europe meets the New World of the Latin Americas.

Experiment Madrid just as it truly is!
